NEWS RELEASE: May 20, 2009

Scott R. Haag
ARC of Greater Milwaukee's 2009 Challenger Honoree

ARC of Greater Milwaukee (ARC) will recognize Scott R. Haag for his exemplary service to the greater Milwaukee Community at its 26th Annual Challenger Golf Outing and Fundraiser on Monday, September 14, 2009 at Blue Mound Golf and Country Club.

Scott has recently garnered the National spotlight for his economic stimulus plan for his employees at Moore Oil. As the President of Moore Oil, Scott is offering each of his employees $2,000 towards the purchase of a new car. His generosity extends far beyond his work at Moore Oil.

Scott was selected as ARC's 2009 Honoree because of his commitment to volunteering, philanthropy, and community service. Scott served as an active member of the ARC Board of Directors and provided his business and community leadership skills to assist the organization in expanding programs to meet the needs of children and adults with disabilities and their families.

Scott dedicates a significant amount of his time and talent to many important programs in our community. He was recently nominated to receive the 2009 Todd Wehr Volunteer Award for his commitment to the greater Milwaukee community. In addition to his leadership at ARC, Scott serves on a number of Boards including: Children's Hospital of Wisconsin, Haggerty Museum of Art, Foundation for Wildlife Conservation and Milwaukee School of Engineering.

It is due to Scott's many contributions that ARC of Greater Milwaukee is proud to honor him with our 2009 Challenger Award.

Challenger Golf Outing and Fundraiser Event Information

The Challenger Golf Outing and Fundraiser will feature a full day of golf at one of the Milwaukee areas most prestigious golf clubs, an awards presentation, and a voice and silent auction. Proceeds from the event will directly support ARC of Greater Milwaukee's service programs.
