NEWS RELEASE: May 25, 2010

Bill and Priscilla Boelter Named ARC's 27th Annual Challenger Honorees

Celebrating 60 years of service, ARC of Greater Milwaukee (ARC) will honor Bill and Priscilla Boelter for their spirit of volunteerism and generosity at its 27th Annual Challenger Golf Outing and Fundraiser on September 13, 2010, at Blue Mound Golf and Country Club.

Proceeds from the Challenger Golf Outing will directly benefit children and adults with developmental and related disabilities, their families and the community. ARC is a leader in the field of developmental disabilities and supports the greater Milwaukee community through information, education, advocacy and life planning services. These services help individuals with disabilities live independent, meaningful lives.

Bill and Priscilla Boelter actively support numerous civic and charitable organizations. They are receiving the Challenger Award for their outstanding commitment to the greater Milwaukee community. Bill is the board chairman of Boelter Companies, which includes foodservice and janitorial supplies, foodservice equipment and food facility design. Today, Bill and Priscilla's sons run the business, which was inducted into the Foodservice Equipment and Supplies Industry Hall of Fame in June 2009.

The Challenger Golf Outing and Fundraiser will feature 18 holes of golf and lunch at one of the Milwaukee area's most prestigious golf courses, followed by cocktails, dinner, and a silent and voice auction. Spaces are limited. For more information and sponsorship options, please contact Jennifer Arenz at 414-774-6255 or jennifer@arcmilwaukee.org.
